Claims 1 to 19 are pending.

Election/Restrictions

1. Applicant's election with traverse of the invention of Group I, claims 1-6 and 17, in the reply filed on 11-3-2006 is acknowledged. The traversal is on the ground(s) that the subject matter of all claims is sufficiently related that a thorough search for the subject matter of any one Group of claims would encompass a search for the subject matter of the remaining claims and that the search and examination of the entire application could be made without serious burden. This is not found persuasive because the methodology of the method claims does create differences between the two claim groups and associated search such that the restriction requirement is warranted. Claims 7-16, 18, and 19 are withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b), as being drawn to a nonelected invention, there being no allowable generic or linking claim.

The requirement is still deemed proper and is therefore made FINAL.

Priority

2. Receipt is acknowledged of papers submitted under 35 U.S.C. 119(a)-(d), which papers have been placed of record in the file.

Conclusion

3. This application is in condition for allowance except for the following formal matters:

A...Claims 1-6 and 17 are objected to because of the following informalities:

Art Unit: 2627

1 -- the language "having an end surface having the greatest width" is problematic as no frame of reference is given. Greatest width relative to what?

2 -- The specification and claims are objected to as referring to the coil as being a helical coil whereas the drawing and details of the formed coil clearly indicate spiral coils are formed as opposed to a helical coil. Note U.S. Patent 6,195,232 for an example of a thin film head coil properly referred to as a helical coil.

B...The presence of non-elected claims.

Prosecution on the merits is closed in accordance with the practice under Ex parte Quayle, 1935 C.D. 11, 453 O.G. 213.

A shortened statutory period for reply to this action is set to expire TWO MONTHS from the mailing date of this letter.
